Question	Response
What is the new hire cohort experience?	The new hire cohort experience is a voluntary event for recent new hires to share their story about their KC experience so far reflecting on topics such as their onboarding experience, career plans with KenCrest, benefits pulse checks, and so much more. It also features fun activities that all who attend the session can participate in to win great prizes that may include KenCrest swag, gift cards, and other awesome items.
Where is the new hire cohort experience?	Currently, the new hire cohort experience will be held virtually via a Cisco Webex virtual meeting room. You can access the meeting room through a link provided in Relias.
How do I register for the new hire cohort experience?	You can register for the event at any time using the link below. https://kencrest.training.reliaslearning.com/Learning/Catalog.aspx?CourseCode=1331517
How long is the new hire cohort experience?	The cohort experience will be one hour long and will be facilitated by personnel from the HR department including training specialists, HR generalists, onboarding specialists, and others.
How can I participate in the raffle activities?	All raffle activities will take place during the session. In order to be eligible for all raffle prizes and to participate in raffle activities, you will have to stay for the entire session.
Do I have to bring anything to the event?	Nope! Just bring yourself and the experiences you wish to share during the session.
What if I can't attend? And how would I reschedule?	If you are unable to attend the session, just notify your supervisor that you are unable to attend so that they may notify the training department to un-enroll you and reschedule you for another session. We highly encourage you to participate within the first two months (60 days) of your hire to get the full experience.
